

Sociological Futures

Call for Proposals

Our established book series, published with Routledge, aims to be a flagship for new and innovative theories and approaches to ‘the social’ in the 21st century. We are interested in focused proposals for monographs and edited collections featuring contemporary work that is theoretically and methodologically innovative, has local or global reach, and engages or reengages with classic debates in sociology bringing new perspectives to important and relevant topics.

All titles are available through the Routledge website and from booksellers. We are looking for more titles and invite proposals to be a part of the series.

The peer reviewed series is inspired by the vibrant wealth of BSA events and presentations. It aims to enable the fruits of these events to reach a wider audience and offers a new publishing outlet for sociologists at all career and publishing stages, from the well-established to emerging sociologists, BSA or non-BSA members, from all parts of the world.
